Welcome to the OdysseyCon Art Show

OdysseyCon (or OddCon for short) is a science fiction / fantasy convention, so please keep this in mind when bringing or sending your artwork.

Walk-in artists are accepted and encouraged. Hanging fees are $0.50 per piece brought in person into the art show or $1.00 per mailed in piece. Due to space limitations, no artist may enter more than 20 pieces in the art show. Be prepared to share panels or tables with other artists. If using an agent, please send her or him with a note stating your name, the agent's name and authority to work as your legal agent. Please have all checks made out to Odyssey Con.

Hanging space is available on "first come, first served" basis. Artists who come to help set up the art show get first choice of hanging space. Art show setup is Friday, April 4th starting about 2:00pm. There is table space for 3-D pieces.

All artwork must be ready to display upon arrival. Bid sheets must be attached to each piece, and a control sheet listing each piece must be submitted to the check-in desk. Please attach each bid sheet so it may be seen when the piece is hanging. Bid sheets and control sheets can be obtained online at the OddCon website (www.oddcon.com). Binder clips on pegboard hooks will be used to hang most artwork. There will be table space for freestanding artwork.

OddCon takes a 10% commission on all art sold through the art show and auction. Checks will be mailed to the artists (or their agents if so requested when the art is checked in or mailed in) within three weeks after the end of the convention. We do collect sales tax, so you do not have to.

Only the artist or agent checking art in can check unsold art out again, unless otherwise stated clearly to the head of art show at check-in. Also, art cannot be checked out of the art show until after the auction on Saturday night or Sunday. Once art is hung, it is to stay hung until it goes to voice auction, is sold, or is checked out.

There will be no print shop this year.

We will have a Quick Sale option. The buyer can purchase artwork immediately without going to auction if there is no bids currently on the piece. Please note that after the auction a buyer can purchase the artwork for the minimum bid price, so please be happy with your minimum bid price.

Mail-in artwork should be sent to:

J.J.Brutsman
c/o OddCon
4110 Hegg Ave.
Madison, WI 53716

and must arrive before April 17. If your artwork will be arriving late, please call or email.

Artwork must be sent in sturdy, reusable containers. Please specify if you want the empty containers returned if all your work is sold. Include a check for return postage, assuming no sale (if you have an account with UPS or FEDEX please include a pre-made return shipping label).

All mail-in artwork not sold will be shipped back via USPS unless otherwise requested and paid for by the artist.

Artwork can either be original or prints. Only one copy of a print may hang in the art show. If your artwork features a character belonging to someone else, you MUST credit the owner (example: a Disney character must be labeled © Disney, in addition to your signature).

All artwork must be matted, mounted, or framed.

In pricing pieces, please use whole dollar increments. Minimum bids must be $5 or over. Each piece receiving more than one bid will go to auction. Pieces with only one bid will be sold for the bid amount without going to auction. All pieces without bids can be picked up Sunday between 10am and 12pm, unless other arrangements have been previously made with the head of the art show.

Since OddCon is staffed and run by volunteers, in all matters, all decisions of the head of art show are final. The exhibitor agrees to protect, keep, and save OddCon forever harmless from any damages or charges imposed for any violations of any law or ordinance by any exhibitor, and their employees or agents, as well for failure to comply with terms and agreements. The exhibitor shall at all times protect, indemnify, save, and keep harmless OddCon against and from any loss, cost, damage, liability, or expenses which might arise out of or by reason of any act or omission of the exhibitor, and their employees or agents.
